Below. The AAP has taken steps to resolve any potential conflicts of interest: None of the editors had any relevant financial relationships to disclose, unless noted applicable.

Every individual in a position to influence and/or control the content of AAP content.

CME activities by identifying and resolving all potential conflicts of interest before designed to ensure quality, objective, balanced, and scientifically rigorous AAP content.

Editorial Board Disclosures

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Policy on Disclosure of Financial Relationships and Conflicts of Interest for AAP CME Activities is designed to ensure quality, objective, balanced, and scientifically rigorous AAP CME activities by identifying and resolving all potential conflicts of interest before the confirmation of service of those in a position to influence and/or control CME content.

Each individual in a position to influence and/or control the content of AAP CME activities is required to disclose to the AAP, and subsequently to learners, whether the individual has relevant financial relationships with manufacturers of commercial products and/or services discussed in the CME activities.

Each of the editorial board members disclosed that the CME content he/she edits/ writes may include discussion of generic pharmaceuticals, off-label pharmaceutical use, investigational therapies, brand names, and manufacturers, if applicable.

None of the editors had any relevant financial relationships to disclose, unless noted below. The AAP has taken steps to resolve any potential conflicts of interest:

- Richard Antaya, MD, FAAP, disclosed that he participates in the Amgen Pharma, Inc. speaker bureau; advisory board; and clinical trial, and he is a Novartis speaker bureau

- Joseph Crilley, MD, MPH, FAAP, disclosed that he has research grants from Novartis Pharmaceuticals (Lupron Depot), Medtronic (NovoPrep), and TAP Pharmaceuticals; that he is on a Medtronic Advisory Board, and that he serves on a speaker bureau for TAP.

- Howard Fracasso, MD, FAAP, disclosed that he serves on speaker bureaus of Amgen, Zentis, Merck, GlaxoSmithKline, and TEVA, and that he is a consultant for TAP and Amylin.

- Leonard Feld, MD, MM, PhD, FAAP, disclosed that he is a speaker for and a consumer member of a Pediatric Board Review Course (sponsored by Abbott Nutrition) through the AAP New York Chapter.

- Jeremy N. Friedman, MD, CHF, FAAP, disclosed that he serves on the Medical Advisory Board of the Center & Gambles Parenting Partnership.

- Lindber K. Grossman, MD, FAAP, disclosed that she is a consultant for Integra Care Management.

- Hal J. Jenion, MD, MBA, FAAP, disclosed that he is a speaker and vaccine advisory board member for Merck Vaccines as well as a speaker for Sanofi Pasteur.

- J. Jeffrey Malatack, MD, FAAP, disclosed that he is a member of the American Board of Pediatrics.

- J. S. Shumar, MD, FAAP, disclosed that he is a speaker/consultant for Eli Lilly Co.

- Surendra Varma, MD, FAAP, disclosed that he is on McKesson’s Professional Advisory Board for Texas Medicaid and on the speaker bureau of Pizer Corp.

The printing and production of Pediatrics in Review® is made possible, in part, by an educational grant from Abbott Nutrition.
