Print Issue Editorial Board Disclosures

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Policy on Disclosure of Financial Relationships and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest for AAP CME Activities is designed to ensure quality, objective, balanced, and scientifically rigorous AAP CME activities by identifying and resolving all potential conflicts of interest before the confirmation of service of those in a position to influence and/or control CME content. All individuals in a position to influence and/or control the content of AAP CME activities are required to disclose to the AAP and subsequently to learners that the individual either has no relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in CME activities. Commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling or distributing health-care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients.

Each of the editorial board members, reviewers, question writers, PREP Coordinating Committee members and staff has disclosed, if applicable, that the CME content he/she edits/writes/reviews may include discussion/reference to generic pharmaceuticals, off-label pharmaceutical use, investigational therapies, brand names, and manufacturers. None of the editors, board members, reviewers, question writers, PREP Coordinating Committee members, or staff has any relevant financial relationships to disclose, unless noted below. The AAP has taken steps to resolve any potential conflicts of interest.

Disclosures

- Athos Bousvaros, MD, MPH, FAAP, disclosed that he has research grants from Merck and UCB; and that he is a paid consultant and on the speaker bureau for Millennium.
- Blaise Nemeth, MD, MS, FAAP, has disclosed he has an unrestricted educational grant for fellowship from Biomet.
- Mobeen Rathore, MD, FAAP, disclosed that he is a consultant and on the speaker bureaus for GSK, Medimmune, Merck, Novartis, and Pfizer.
- Richard Sills, MD, FAAP, disclosed that he receives a research grant from Novartis.
- Rudolph Valentini has disclosed he receives a research grant from Abbott Laboratories.
- Miriam Weinstein, MD, disclosed that she is a consultant for PediaPharm and SunCorp. She also has received honoraria from Dermik and Leo Pharma.

Pediatrics in Review® is supported, in part, through an educational grant from Abbott Nutrition, a division of Abbott Laboratories, Inc.

CME statements:

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Pediatrics in Review offers 36 CME articles per year. A maximum of one AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ is earned after achieving a 60% score on each designated quiz. The AAP designates this journal-based CME activity for a maximum of one AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This activity is acceptable for a maximum of 36 AAP credits. These credits can be applied toward the AAP CME/CPD* Award available to Fellows and Candidate Members of the AAP.

The American Academy of Physician Assistants accepts AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ from organizations accredited by the ACCME.

This program is approved for 36 NAPNAP CE contact hours; pharmacology (Rx) contact hours to be determined per the National Association of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners (NAPNP) Continuing Education Guidelines.

*Continuing Professional Development

How to complete this activity:

Pediatrics in Review can be accessed and reviewed in print or online at <http://pedsinreview.aapublications.org>. Learners can claim credit monthly online upon completion of each CME article. The deadline for completing this activity is December 31, 2012. It is noted that it will take approximately 1 hour to complete each CME article. This activity is not considered to have been completed until the learner documents participation in that activity to the provider via online submission of answers. Course evaluations will be required online.
